"MEN" FROM MARS HAVE LANDED!

Martians are here to watch us! This is the considered point on Firaza Brunn Heydelger, noted interstellar scientist, and he bases his deductions on a large collection of actual facts.

First, radio contact was long ago made with Mars. The sperience of many radio operators with strange signals on ultra-wavelengths has for years indicated the strong on the sperience of communicate the strong the sperience of communications.

with us. Triangulation on the source of these ultra-waves indicates Mars, the easiest planet with which to establish radio contact radio contact.

Second, six years ago the first so-called "flying saucers" were sighted. The hard reality of these spaceships is incontestable. Even the conservative U.S. Air Force has had to admit failure to explain away a large percentage of them. That a disc-shaped aircraft can be created has been conclusively demonstrated by the Canadians, who have developed such a machine capable of very high speeds. However, the Canadians were not responsible for those saucer-draped objects that have been sighted more than 1.500 times in the nast six years.

Third, Mars is the only planet other than our own that is likely to have produced a race of beings intelligeof enough to create a scloose capable of producing spaceships. Voous and Mercury are much too hot, while the outer planets — Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Jupiter and Pluto—are too cold to support life. Mars, on the other hand, while possessing a very thin atmosphere and great extremes of heat and eold, would be habitable for an advanced race of meo or mao-like creatures. With underground cities, controlled temperature and atmospheric pressure (all of which we know to be feasible), Martians could exist quite comfortably, though they would have to limit the size of their population because of the restrictions of space in these underground cities.

Fourth, we see oow the Martian motive in visiting Earth. It is the same motive that inspired Hitler and the Nazis to spread out over Europe: Lebensraum! — living

All this means the following, according to Frank Bruno Heydegger:

1. Since it is now obvious that Martians have actually

 Since it is now obvious that Martians have actually crossed interstellar space, and many scientists believe costudes lake this excite ceration, seek at new yorks attisty southy salt, could cloak anatomical differences of martians.

watching us. Doubtlest they are also making certain necessary tests prior to mass invasion and colonization. Their scientists would be taking samples of our atmosphere and sol, investigating our mineral resources, and studying the possibility of peaceful collaboration with the nations of Farth.

2. Martians must look very much like one form or another of human life, for until the present they have no doubt moved among us undetected. If they resemble, say, Orientals, we should not know the difference. And as or their speech, we would assume it simply to have some sort of "foreign" accent.

3. In other words, we have among us at the present time an alten race of human or humanoid creatures intent on colonizing Earth. They walk among us every day. We see them on the street, in the crowds, perhaps even in the house next door, and we do not suspect them for what they really

The conclusion that Franz Bruno Heydegger reaches is this: Martians in saucer-type spaceships have been arriving on Earth from Mars steadily during the past six years as an advance party preparing for colonization. They are

With the power necessary for interplanetary travel, these Martians must also have very great destructive power. The question is: Are they waiting for us to destroy ourselves with H-bombis in a great world conflagration? Or are they making their own stockpiles of destruction against the day when they land their spaceships by the thousands and complete their mass invasion? And if they did come out in the open and attempt to negotiate unifoluously, would they be welcomed and invited to colonize?

What is to be done?

DARE urgently proposes that our scientists take over the situation

by publicly calling upon our uninvited visitors from outer space to state their demands and offer their proposals with the assurance that we believe all peoples, human and humanold, can and should live together in peace and eooperative harmony. And until the Martians make themselves and their intentions known ours should be an attitude of watchful vaiting.
